

Certificate of Appreciation

Dear Muralikrishnan Raajanthira,

You have been appreciated by Soumya Soman.

Dear Team, I would like to specifically applaud your interest in volunteering to conduct Biz Emendo, an in-house Business skills learning program to help slow learners across streams improve on their communication skills. Your tremendous effort in coordinating among associates, preparing appropriate Bizskills activities and delivering the same successfully from Jun to Jul (2018) at Chennai ILP is worth mentioning. This is what makes you stand out in the crowd. Keep up the good work! It was my pleasure collaborating with you to make this initiative happen.

Dear team, I would like to specifically applaud your overwhelming interest and tremendous support in making the Virtual Connect with Japanese associates a reality (at Chennai ILP on 26 June 2018). Your enthusiasm in designing and conducting BizImagism - a pictorial quiz - is greatly appreciated. In fact, throughout the one hour program, you did provide your audience with enough opportunities to communicate and collaborate among themselves and also with us. This indeed raised their morale. In this way, you have been the epitome of one of the TCS values, Learning and Sharing. The fact that you have managed to support us besides your regular ILP activities needs special mention. It was a pleasure collaborating with you all to make this initiative happen!
